Chapter 1 by Meagan Wilson

Ok so lets say for the moment that there was a time before the war. A time of peace. Crazy right. Let's say that two years ago, Amanda Williams was just any other name and that this war never existed. No one truly knows how it happened or who started it but they all know the ending because this is our last day. The last day to tell the ones you love goodbye. The last day to eat a million ice creams or climb to the top of the largest mountain. Since I have no one to say goodbye to, I don't like ice cream, and I hate climbing, I chose this day to write one last story. The story of how it began and why this had to happen.
